

We have "telegraphic accounts" of another plot in Indiana, the seizure of boxes of arms sent to "disloyal" persons in Indianapolis, the making of the books belonging to the "Sons of Liberty." Some arrests have been made, but the "plot" seems to attract little or no attention.

John M. Daniels, editor of the Richmond Examiner and E. C. Elmore, of the Confederate Treasury fought a duel near Richmond on Tuesday morning. The result was a flesh wound in Daniel's leg, and an amicable settlement.

The Colonel Streight killed in Georgia, is the same officer who escaped from Libby prison in the early part of this year.

The yellow fever is reported to be raging at Bermuda.

GOLD.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Gold, to-day, 257.

CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS, at the Theatre, last night, attracted an overflowing house, and the performance gave great satisfaction. The merit was greatly heightened, by the introduction, in the last scene, of a veritable negro, in the person of the well known porter of the City Hotel, "Chief Justice Marshal," badge and all, who joined in the "walk-around," with a decided gusto.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

LOCATED BETWEEN PITT AND ROYAL STREETS

The correspondent of the New York Herald with Gen. Sherman writes from "near Atlanta" on the 14th that the Confederates hold high ground covering their road, a spur of their fortification running southwest from Atlanta, seven miles that we know of—mayhap it extends indefinitely. We have not found the end of it, although we have stretched out twelve miles of men in the attempt.

The New York World says that it is proposed that if the "radical warfare" is kept up against Mr. Lincoln successfully, to withdraw him, and nominate Mr. Charles Francis Adams, at present Minister to England, for President.
